

LPA de Riscle

FORMATIONS & DÉVELOPPEMENT

Bac Pro NATURE

Management of natural environment and fauna

Objective

The GMNF BAC PRO (BTEC) is an Agricultural Diploma (level IV) leading to direct professional integration or further studies for a BTS. This degree is aimed at training environmental technician responsible for organizing and carrying out maintenance work landscaping, monitoring natural species and spaces.

Course content

- Initial vocational training in 2 years
- General teaching modules ( 13hrs/week)
- Vocational teaching modules ( 15hrs/week) MAT – Management of wetlands and trapping licences
- Internship : 14 weeks spent in the work place with the opportunity to complete an internship in an European Union Country

Admission requirements

Qualification "2nd Nature, garden Landscape and forestry" or 2nd Generale and Technologique (year 11)

Recrutement

- According to the National Education admission procedure (AFFELNET) carried out by the former school
- Application form must be returned to the LPA before May, 25th 2018

Why study with us ?

- Very professional training ( internship professional work place )
- Numerous partnerships

What comes next ?

- BTSA Management in Nature Protection
- BTSA GEMEAU
- BTSA GF
- BTSA AP

Practical info

- Monday to Friday classes
- Boarding (possible from as early as Sunday night), day student or half board
- All courses are in French

Diplôme requirements

Non-optional assessment : final exam 50% and continuous assessment 50%
 Possibility to sit a BEPA exam at the end of 1 BAC PRO
 Optional modules : community service, mobility

Career opportunities

Salaried employee : local government, natural parks, Environment Management, specialized private enterprises
 Company creation specializing in Management and Landscaping of Natural Species , nature and promotion

LPA de Riscle

Voie Edgar Morin - 32400 Riscle

Tél 05 62 69 72 16 • lpa.riscle@educagri.fr

